About PolitiNudge

COVID-19 is a barrier to people getting out and protesting. People want to support Black Lives Matter (BLM) in ways other than protesting but are unsure how. The PolitiNudge Chrome extension is here to help.

PolitiNudge will inform those who are interested about the many ways they can help out the BLM movement other than protesting by replacing certain images on their news site of choice with graphics about donating money, time, resources, etc.

PolitiNudge's goal is to remind people of the myriad of ways they can help without the risk of contracting COVID-19.

What are our future plans? Going forward, PolitiNudge plans to accept graphic submissions from relevant non-profits. Once approved, the graphics will be added to our expanding library.

Additional features to be added include location specific listings and a calendar function that would enable us to set time frames during which certain graphics will be available.

Thank you.
